

Hotel Lord Byron
ROMA

Welcome Home!

The feeling of comfort we all experience in our own home is something that certainly can't be matched in its uniqueness.

My own «homes», the Lord Byron and the Regency, will only try to avoid you feeling overly homesick. Therefore, while you look forward to hearing the sweetest and coasiest of all welcomes – «welcome back home!» – just let me welcome you to this home.

Amedeo Ottaviani

Late Owner Hotel Lord Byron Roma & Hotel Regency Firenze

The property, member of Small Luxury Hotels of the World since 2013, is located in one of the most chic residential neighborhoods in Rome, Parioli, and is just a few moments walk from the splendid Villa Borghese gardens and 15 minutes walk from Piazza del Popolo. Once inside the Art-Deco villa, one feels as if he's a guest in a smart art collector's home, with a vast collection of both paintings and sculptures.

Hotel Lord Byron offers outstanding service, an incomparable fine dining experience and a feeling of warmth and intimacy that can only be found inside a private home. The hotel evokes a glamorous era in the eternal city while providing modern conveniences and comforts, offering the guests an unforgettable experience.

THE WARMTH AND COZINESS OF A PRIVATE HOME

The story of the Patrician villa began in 1939 when it was built for a wealthy engineer who then sold it to the Franciscan friars of Assisi. In 1970, it was given to the current owners, who restructured the villa into a private residence with all of the accoutrements of a luxury hotel.

The owners decided to name the hotel after the English poet, George Gordon Noel Byron, who, during a visit to Rome, was fascinated by the area in which the property is located.

Over the years, the hotel has hosted many prestigious guests, including politicians, government officials, diplomats, athletes, and International personalities who choose Hotel Lord Byron for its utmost discretion, privacy, and prestige.

- Patrician villa turned boutique hotel, with 1930's interior design and Artwork
- 30 rooms and suites individually decorated with original Art-Deco pieces
- Located in Rome's most elegant neighborhood, at the borders of the magnificent Villa Borghese gardens
- Fine dining at Saponi del Lord Byron Restaurant

HIGHLIGHTS

Hotel Lord Byron is a living expression of art; it is more than a presentation of visual items, the property breathes history, creativity, and style. Famous painters such as Maurice Paul Joron and Nicholas Granger Taylor have been guests on our walls for nearly a century. The intriguing mix of trends that created the Art-Deco movement find a natural setting within the walls of the hotel.

All of the spacious 31 rooms and suites have been beautifully restored, each evoking the eclectic Art-Deco style in their own, with designs and original works inspired by the 1930s luminary Emile- Jacques Ruhlmann

The 30 spacious rooms and suites are decorated in a warm color palette, equipped with eclectic Art-Deco designs and unique works of art.

Mahogany and rosewood furniture lend a romantic aura, imposing mirrors speak to the glamour of the 1930's, and marble bathrooms and fine fabrics create a sumptuous living space for our guests.
